

A vibrant red sculpture of the word "GIJÓN" in a stylized, blocky font, set against a backdrop of a city street with buildings and palm trees. The sculpture is made of thick, red-painted metal or plastic, with each letter having a unique, rounded, and somewhat abstract shape. The letters are arranged in a row, and the sculpture is positioned on a paved walkway. In the background, there are several multi-story buildings, some with balconies, and several palm trees. The sky is clear and blue. The overall scene is bright and sunny, suggesting a warm climate.
